

July 2017 - Matt I.

Matt has an obvious passion and respect for America's greatest pastime - baseball. He has played the game since he was 4 years old, he can quickly tell you stats on upcoming rookies, and just like any Houston-raised boy he supports the Houston Astros. If there is something about baseball that he doesn't know, he will take the time to learn it. This passion has made an impact on many areas of his life. He enjoys playing ball in his free time, and keeping up with the news means catching last night's highlights. Baseball has even influenced his education and career path. Matt plans to earn his degree in journalism from the University of Houston, in hopes to pursue a career in broadcasting - specifically for baseball.

For Matt, BreWingZ offers the perfect work environment, "I enjoy interacting with people, and if the game is on, I can always find someone to talk baseball with." In addition to being the go-to guy on baseball, Matt works full-time at BreWingZ -Humble as a server and trainer. He was recently selected for the opening team for the new BreWingZ location in Pearland and is very excited for the opportunity, "It'll be my first opening and I'm proud to be chosen. I enjoy training and take pride knowing I will be a part of setting the tone and standards for BreWingZ."

In the very rare moments where Matt isn't working or enjoying some baseball you can find him playing pool or singing Karaoke. Matt is close with his family and they encourage him to sing, "My cousin is a really great singer, and always pushes me to sing. I'm not sure if I'm any good, but I really enjoy it. He tells me I need to be heard." Matthew takes that advice not only with Karaoke and singing, but in all aspects. He shares his dedication and positivity when at work, and hopes to share his insights and expertise in baseball one day.